Fire Destroys Small Cottage.

The fire department was called out Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock to extinguish a fire in the small frame cottage on Pleasant street between the property of Mrs. Laura Perry and the livery stable owned by Mayor J. T. Hinton. The origin of the fire is unknown. The house, which was occupied by a family of negroes who were not at home when the fire started, was practically destroyed, considerable damage being done by water. A brick wind was blowing and it was only by excellent work on the part of the department that the adjoining property was not damaged. The house was owned by Mrs. Thomas Higgins.

Will Call Meetings for Thursday

The whirlwind campaign of the Burley Tobacco Society in the interest of the ten year pool, according to announcement by officials at headquarters in Lexington Tuesday, will be prosecuted with vigor from now until March 1, the date of closing.

Saturday of this week there will be meetings in Lexington, Mt. Sterling and Owenton and next Monday others will be held in Flemingsburg, Springfield, Bedford, Versailles, Cynthiana and Winchester.

Meetings will be held in every county in the district next Thursday, February 29, at which the last appeal will be made to growers to sign the ten year pooling pledge President Lebus Tuesday sent out the following official letter to county chairmen announcing the final "round-up" meeting:

"Dear Sir—We think it very important that each county chairman advertise a mass meeting of tobacco growers to be held in his county on Thursday, February 29, being the last day of February for the purpose of securing as many signatures as possible to the ten year pooling contract."

"Yesterday at Georgetown, Lawrenceburg, Nicholasville and Mt. Sterling, they signed at court day meetings a total acreage of about 9,000, which was certainly very gratifying."

"We have several meetings advertised for next Saturday and the following Monday, and then by having meetings in each county on February 29, what might be called a 'round-up' meeting, we have every reason to believe that the ten year pool will prove a great success. Yours very truly,

"BURLEY TOBACCO SOCIETY,
"CLARENCE LEBUS, President."

Not from Paris.

A few days ago the Lexington Herald published a news item to the effect that Ernest Martin, in police court in that city, was fined $50 for disorderly conduct. The impression of a number of Paris people was that it was Ernest Martin of this city, which, however, was not the case. In justice to Mr. Martin we publish this to correct the impression.

Houston, Texas, Swept By Fire.

Seventy blocks of buildings in Houston, Texas, were destroyed by fire Wednesday, with a loss estimated at between $6,000,000 and $10,000,000. The flames, swept on by a fifty-mile gale, cut a path seven blocks wide and a mile through the heart of the residence and manufacturing sections. The entire city was saved from destruction only by the use of dynamite.

Twenty-five hundred persons are homeless and fully three thousand more have lost their means of a livelihood as a result of the destruction of manufacturing plants, cotton compresses and lumber yards.

THEATRICAL.

"A PAIR OF COUNTRY KIDS."

The pair of kids at the Paris Grand next Monday from all reports are a lively pair and are ably managed and assisted by a competent company of ladies and gentlemen, as are all such high class companies presenting rural comedies. These companies should not be confounded with the coarse and vulgar farmer plays that have been touring the country for years and whose principal merit is a noisy brass band. The later day rural play is a pleasing homespun affair presented by a cast of intelligent people and framed in a natural rural atmosphere such as we have all at some time in our lives been familiar with. "A Pair of Country Kids" is of the later class and will please the old and young and is a real novelty in many respects and we can assure the patrons of the Grand that they will surely get their money's worth in watching the action of the kids for two hours and a half.

At Work on Theatre Building.

Work on the Colonial Theatre at the corner of Fifth and Main street, upon which the contractors began last Monday is progressing rapidly in spite of the extreme cold weather. The entire front of the building, which will be replaced with a modern front patterned after those of the larger cities, has been removed and the partition which separated the laundry office from the remainder of the building, has been removed. Weather permitting the contractors will push the work to an early completion and expect to have everything in readiness to turn the building over to the Colonial Amusement Co. by the fifteenth of April.

Hot Shot at Cantrill.

Denouncing Congressman Campbell Cantrill as a "demagogue" whose every allegation as to him is "absolutely false" Representative Harry Schoberth, of Woodford county, candidate against Cantrill for the Democratic Congressional nomination, Tuesday night issued a vigorous response to the card given out at Washington by Cantrill, charging him, Schoberth, with bad faith in getting into the race at this time.

In return, Schoberth charges Cantrill with the things which he decries, tells him that he won't let him run away from the record he has made here in Kentucky, and urges that the sole issue between them is and shall be which will "most truly represent" the people of the Ashland District in Congress.

Mr. Schoberth denies he ever made a promise to Cantrill to keep out of the race.

Skovgaard Concert.

Of the Skovgaard concert, which will be given at the High School Auditorium on Tuesday evening, February 27, the St. Paul, Minn., Pioneer Press has the following:

"Seldom is a St. Paul audience aroused to that pitch of enthusiasm that it refused to be satisfied after the last number of an already ample program has been given, and insists upon having a last leavetaking from the artist, or artists, that have brought on the spell. But that is what happened last evening at the Central Presbyterian church at the concert given by Skovgaard and his concert company."

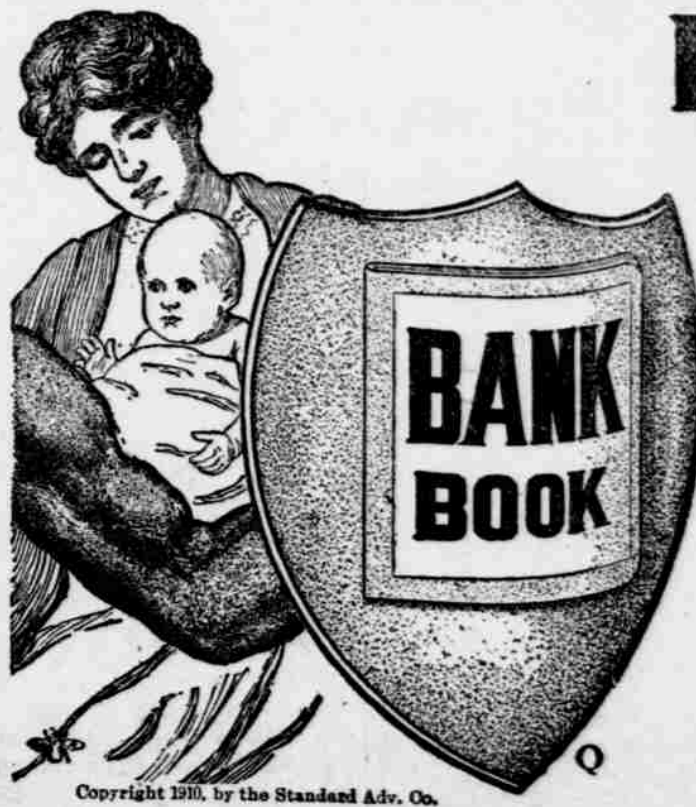

"At the conclusion of Pizzicato Grazioso, a piece written by himself, which was the last of his final group, Skovgaard was compelled to reappear several times upon the platform. The applause continued, and finally, when some one in the balcony called out 'Home Sweet Home,' those in the audience who had already filed out into the aisles and returned as one person and the violinist was obliged to give one last number."

"Skovgaard has made a happy selection in his associates. All his numbers were repeatedly encored, but none won more applause than the simple melody of 'Way Down Upon the Suavee River,' which was given as an encore after 'Gypsy Life,' by Sarasate."

Meet Foreign Missionaries.

A very interesting meeting was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hinton on High street. A number of ladies and gentlemen were invited to meet Rev. A. E. Corey and Dr. Royal J. Dye, returned missionaries from the foreign field, and Mr. Davis Teachout, a young business man of Cleveland, O. The object of the meeting was to hear the plans of the two able missionaries which are being submitted to the Christian churches in many cities by which they entertain the hope of raising one million dollars with which it is their intention to build and equip a hospital and school in connection with every mission station in the foreign field which are supported by the Christian church. The gentlemen were extended an invitation by the Mission Council to return to this city and deliver their talk at the Christian church this evening.

The missionaries accepted the invitation and the meeting will be held at the Christian church this evening. It promises to be of a great interest and all interested in the work should attend. There will be no collection taken.
